ANNOTATIONS

McDonald, Joanna M.
Summer 1999

McDonald, Joanna M. "We Shall Meet Again": The First Battle of Manassas. White Mane, $27.95 ISBN 1572491086

With 45 maps, 200 b&w; photos, and the orders of battle, this guide intimately describes the battle. Though unstructured, it offers vignettes illustrating battlefield confusion and instances of friendly fire.

Johnson, Terry A.
Summer 1999

Johnson, Terry A. 'Him on One Side and Me on the Other': The Civil War Letters of Alexander Campbell and James Campbell. University of South Carolina Press, ISBN 1570032653

Two brothers from Scotland who emigrated to America -- one to New York, the other to Charleston -- find themselves on opposing sides in war, and, in one case, in the same battle. These are their affectionate wartime letters.

Dawes, Rufus R.
Summer 1999

Dawes, Rufus R. A Full Blown Yankee of the Iron Brigade: Service with the Sixth Wisconsin Volunteers. University of Nebraska Press, ISBN 803266189

Dawes offers a candid and sophisticated memoir of one Iron Brigade member's service from Second Bull Run to Petersburg. Here is what Dawes notes of the Chancellorsville retreat: "The reason General Hooker recrossed the river was because he was outgeneraled and defeated."

Soderberg, Susan Cooke

Summer 1999

Soderberg, Susan Cooke A Guide to Civil War Sites in Maryland: Blue and Gray in a Border State. White Mane, ISBN 1572491035

Not much escapes the attention of this guide to Maryland battlefields, homes, and sites involved with the Civil War. Some are well-trodden, but others -- like Frederick's War Correspondents Arch and the statue of Phillipides -- merit a closer look.

Thackery, David T.

Summer 1999

Thackery, David T. A Light and Uncertain Hold: A History of the Sixty-Sixth Ohio Volunteer Infantry. Kent State University Press, ISBN 873386094

Provides a military history of the 66th Ohio Volunteer Infantry and a poignant social history of the unit's home, Champaign County, Ohio, during the Civil War.

Banks, Sara Harrell

Summer 1999

Banks, Sara Harrell Abraham's Battle: A Novel of Gettysburg. Atheneum, ISBN 689817797

This handsomely designed novel involves two Abrahams: Lincoln, whose Gettysburg address transforms the war's purpose, and Abraham Small, a freedman whose service in the Union ambulance corps throws him into the midst of battle. Ages 9-13.

Eisenhower, John S. D.

Summer 1999

Eisenhower, John S. D. Agent of Destiny: The Life and Times of General Winfield Scott. University of Oklahoma Press, ISBN 806131284

The prolific life of Winfield Scott, who first gained fame as one of the few bright spots in the War of 1812. Scott served fourteen presidents, led the invasion of Mexico, and for a short time commanded the Union Army.

Leonard, Elizabeth D.
Summer 1999

Leonard, Elizabeth D. All the Daring of the Soldier: Women of the Civil War Armies. Norton, ISBN 393047121

As interesting as they are varied, Leonard has collected here the stories of real women who "put their lives on the line and engaged in the traditionally manly profession of war" as spies and soldiers.

Ingrisano, Michael
Summer 1999

Ingrisano, Michael An Artilleryman's War: Gus Dey and the 2nd United State Artillery. White Mane, ISBN 1572491019

Examines Gustavus Dey's 11 year career in the 2nd United States Artillery. Beginning in 1854, Ingrisano describes the exploits of Dey and his unit, including the 2nd Artillery's role in the trans-Mississippi theater during the Civil War.

White, Deborah Gray
Summer 1999

White, Deborah Gray Aren't I a Woman?: Female Slaves in the Plantation South. W.W. Norton, ISBN 393314812

With a new introduction and chapter on Reconstruction, White revises her work on female slaves, their transition to freedwomen, and their self-image. "Thank God black women were never what white people perceived us or wanted us to be," she concludes.

Goodrich, Thomas

Summer 1999

Goodrich, Thomas Black Flag: Guerilla Warfare on the Western Border, 1861-1865. Indiana University Press, ISBN 253213037

Tensions between pro-slave and pro-free state Midwesterners preceded, and indeed precipitated the Civil War; its outbreak simply unleashed a torrent of bloodshed by bushwhackers, jayhawkers, and vigilantes, as this accessible volume brings to life.

Bedwell, Randall

Summer 1999

Bedwell, Randall Brink of Destruction: A Quotable History of the Civil War. Cumberland House, $12.95 ISBN 1581820054

Photos and brief introductions precede sections organized chronologically that together contain over 300 quotes from Civil War politicians, generals, soldiers, and civilians. Some common, others obscure, these quips and reflections record the development of war.

Bedwell, Randall

Summer 1999

Bedwell, Randall Brink of Destruction: A Quotable History of the Civil War. Cumberland House, ISBN 1581820054

Photos and brief introductions precede sections organized chronologically that together contain over 300 quotes from Civil War politicians, generals, soldiers, and civilians. Some common, others obscure, these quips and reflections record the development of war.

Roddy, Lee
Summer 1999

Roddy, Lee Burden of Honor. Bethany House, ISBN 764220276

The story of three youth -- Gideon, Emily, and Nat -- who remain true to friendships and family obligations despite the conflict around them, this novel demonstrates that the virtues of honesty, determination, and courage need not be casualties of war. Ages 11-14.

Poirier, Robert G.
Summer 1999

Poirier, Robert G. By the Blood of Our Alumni: Norwich University Citizen Soldiers in the Army of the Potomac. Savas, ISBN 188281021X

Overshadowed by West Point, Norwich University nevertheless contributed 700 graduates to Union ranks and over 50 to Confederate ones, and they did honor to the Vermont school's name from Bull Run to Petersburg. Appendices document the individual alumni.

Everett, Donald E.
Summer 1999

Everett, Donald E. Chaplain Davis and Hood's Texas Brigade. Louisiana State University Press, ISBN 807123927

Composed during the first half of the Civil War, the Reverend Nicholas A. Davis's memoir not only portrays the religious duties of chaplains, but also provides very intense accounts of major battles from a distinctly Southern point of view. New foreword by Robert K. Krick.

de la Garza, Phyllis
Summer 1999

de la Garza, Phyllis Charissa of the Overland. Royal Fireworks, ISBN 880923709

Based on a true story, this young adult's novel has 16-year-old Charissa assuming a male identity to escape from Quantrill's Raiders. Traveling the frontier as a stagecoach driver, she encounters Civil War tensions, Indians, and highwaymen.

Kaltman, Al
Summer 1999

Kaltman, Al Cigars, Whiskey, and Winning: Leadership Lessons from General Ulysses S. Grant. Prentice Hall, ISBN 073520022X

Despite the sneers of priggish New Englanders, Grant actually epitomized successful leadership according to Kaltman. Episodes from Grant's life illustrate 250 lessons, which are followed by a brief analysis of why his presidency met with failure.

O'Connor, Thomas H.
Summer 1999

O'Connor, Thomas H. Civil War Boston: Home Front & Battlefield. Northeastern University Press, ISBN 1555533833

"My main interest in this study is not so much in the military events of the war itself...but about how the battlefield events touched the lives of people on the home front," O'Connor announces in the introduction to this fine social history.

Woodworth, Steven E.
Summer 1999

Woodworth, Steven E. Civil War Generals in Defeat. University Press of Kansas, ISBN 700609431

Seven different authors profile both Confederate and Union generals in relation to a battlefield loss. Each essay interweaves personality, logistics, and unforeseen circumstances as contributing factors which helped shape battlefield outcomes.

Abdill, George B.
Summer 1999

Abdill, George B. Civil War Railroads: A Pictorial Story of the War Between the States. Indiana University Press, ISBN 253335361

First published in 1961, Civil War Railroads features more than 220 black-and-white photographs illustrating the role of railroads, with accompanying text explaining their significance. Included are photographs of trains and stations, trainmen, and even the Lincoln Funeral Coach.

Spaulding, Lily May Spaulding, John
Summer 1999

Spaulding, Lily May and Spaulding, John. Civil War Recipes: Receipts from the Pages of Godey's Lady's Book. The University of Kentucky, ISBN 813120829

Civil War Recipes contains a wide sampling of recipes, as well as information on Union and Confederate army rations, cooking on both homefronts, and substitutions used during the war by southern cooks.

Perry, Mark
Summer 1999

Perry, Mark Conceived in Liberty: Joshua Chamberlain, William Oates, and the American Civil War. Penguin, ISBN 140247971

A dual biography of Chamberlain and Oates, who fought against each other at Gettysburg. Follows both men during the war and Reconstruction years, when each man served his home state and wrote accounts of the war.

Horwitz, Tony
Summer 1999

Horwitz, Tony Confederates in the Attic: Dispatches from the Unfinished Civil War. Vintage, ISBN 067975833X

Tony Horwitz ushers readers through a South where the Civil War is still being fought -- in court rooms and classrooms, as well as on historic battlefields -- in Confederates in the Attic.

Brown, Kent Masterson
Summer 1999

Brown, Kent Masterson Cushing of Gettysburg: The Story of a Union Artillery Commander. The University of Kentucky Press, ISBN 813109531

Cushing of Gettysburg is a stunning account of the career of Union officer Lt. Alonzo Hereford Cushing that offers valuable new insights into the nature of the Civil War and the men who fought it.

Klein, Maury
Summer 1999

Klein, Maury Days of Defiance: Sumter, Secession, and the Coming of the Civil War. Vintage Books, ISBN 679768823

Days of Defiance vividly recounts the period from the election of Abraham Lincoln to the shelling of Fort Sumter and brings the key players in the tragedy unforgettably to life.

McDonald, JoAnna M.
Summer 1999

McDonald, JoAnna M. Faces of Irish Civil War Soldiers: Rare Photographs of Irish Soldiers Who Fought for the North and South. Stackpole, ISBN 188896703X

Young and old, some ruddy and others dandy, the images of 200 Irishman soldiers -- along with their units, terms of service, and wartime fate -- fill pages of a book which features an index by unit.

Woodford, Arthur E.
Summer 1999

Woodford, Arthur E. Father Abraham's Children: Michigan Episodes in the Civil War. Wayne State University Press, ISBN 814328164

"Rather than a formal account of Michigan's part in the Civil War," the author describes his aim as "an attempt to retell some of the stories and reminiscences that are the basis of history and legend." He succeeds.

Fonvielle Jr., Chris E.
Summer 1999

Fonvielle Jr., Chris E. Fort Anderson: Battle for Wilmington. Savas, ISBN 1882810244

To protect Wilmington, Fort Anderson rose on the Cape Fear River's bank, across from Fort Fisher. Here is a wonderful book that describes -- in prose, photos, maps, and drawings -- Fort Anderson's construction, assault, loss and rediscovery.

Rawl, Miriam Freeman
Summer 1999

Rawl, Miriam Freeman From the Ashes of Ruin. Summerhouse, ISBN 1887714391

Sherman's Georgia march fails to break Ellen Heyward's spirit, which is demonstrated as she evades capture by a Union officer whose relentless pursuit becomes both a romantic and professional imperative in this novel.

Collins, Darrell L.
Summer 1999

Collins, Darrell L. General William Averell's Salem Raid: Breaking the Knoxville Supply Line. White Mane, ISBN 1572491116

In Averell's raid on the Virginia and Tennessee Railroad at Salem, the author finds lasting military significance: remarkable drive, determination, and spirit of sacrifice seemed to mark a transition...to a new type of warfare.

Dufour, Charles L.
Summer 1999

Dufour, Charles L. Gentle Tiger: The Gallant Life of Roberdeau Wheat. Louisiana State University Press, ISBN 807123919

A Richmond matron described the famed Louisiana Tigers as "men of desperate courage but questionable morals." This reprint chronicles the dashing activities of Roberdeau Wheat, who led the Tigers until his battle death at Gaines' Mill.

Burchard, Peter
Summer 1999

Burchard, Peter Lincoln and Slavery. Atheneum, ISBN 689815700

Amplly illustrated, Burchard's book traces the evolution of Lincoln's slavery position. It suggests that Lincoln's lifelong opposition to slavery -- sometimes pragmatic, sometimes principled -- was influenced by youthful encounters with it. Ages 12 and up.

Klement, Frank L.
Summer 1999

Klement, Frank L. Lincoln's Critics: The Copperheads of the North. White Mane, ISBN 1572491280

This selection of articles and essays justifies Klement's often controversial reputation as an expert on the Copperheads, whom Lincoln derided and persecuted as traitors. The author argues they actually were advocates of Midwestern economic and cultural interests.

Sieburg, Evelyn Hanson II, James E.
Summer 1999

Sieburg, Evelyn and Hanson II, James E.. Memoirs of a Confederate Staff Officer: From Bethel to Bentonville. White Mane, ISBN 1572490926
