STUDENT GOVERNMENT RESOLUTION NO. 30

BY: SENATORS LOBIANCO, BERGERON, AND JUVES

A Resolution

To request that the Faculty Senate reverse their decision to raise the hourly requirements for the Dean's List and Chancellor's Honor Roll.

Paragraph 1 Whereas, the Faculty Senate passed Senate Resolution 04-05 stating that only students with fifteen (15) or more credit hours would qualify for the Dean's List and the Chancellor's Honor Roll, and

Paragraph 2 Whereas, the minimum hourly requirement for a full-time student at LSU is twelve (12) hours, and

Paragraph 3 Whereas, proper input from LSU students would have been beneficial before making this decision, and

Paragraph 4 Whereas, due to lack of student input, the Faculty Senate did not deem it important that most upper level courses and labs are more advanced than others and require more time commitments, and

Paragraph 5 Whereas, the Faculty Senate has also failed to realize that some students have jobs outside of school limiting them to only twelve (12) hours of course work, and

Paragraph 6 Whereas, it would be unfair to prohibit those that take upper level course work, lab classes, or have a job from receiving the distinction of being on the Dean's List or Chancellor's Honor Roll because of their challenging work load;

Paragraph 7 Therefore, be it resolved that the LSU A&M Student Senate requests that the Faculty Senate repeal Senate Resolution 04-05 which requires fifteen (15) or more hours for the Dean's List and the Chancellor's Honor Roll and consult with the Student Senate before any other rules of this nature take effect, and

Paragraph 8 Be it further resolved that upon passage by a majority vote of the LSU A&M Student Senate, a copy of this resolution be transmitted to the Faculty Senate in a timely manner.
